Curnow School
Online Safety Bulletin

Autumn Term 2021
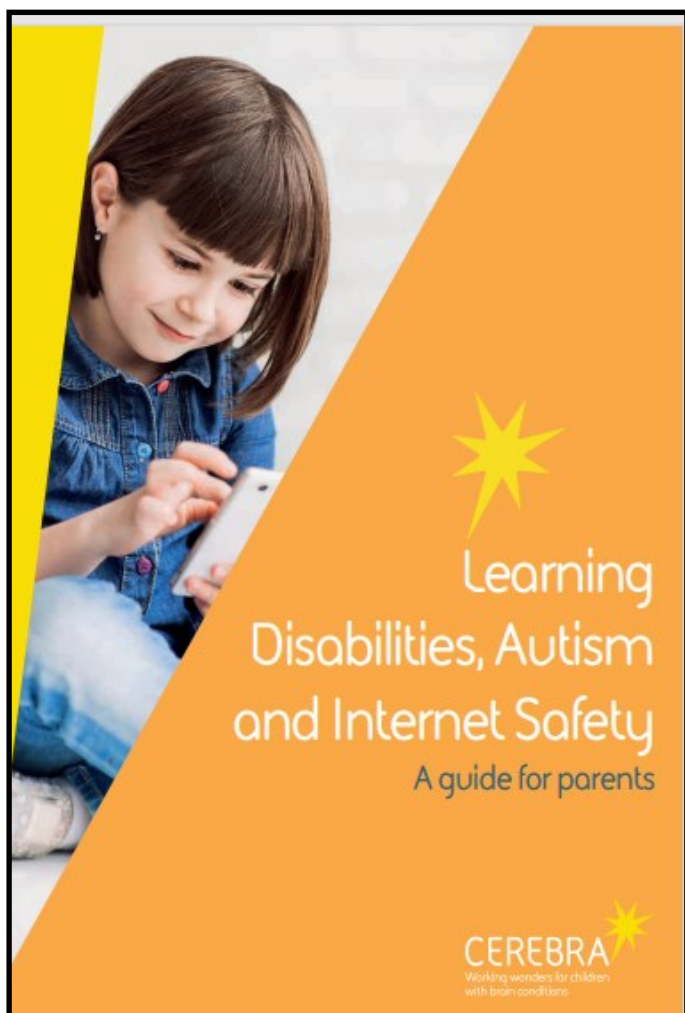

Keeping your home internet safe

This document found online at Cerebra.org.uk provides a comprehensive guide of advice and top tips to keeping your child safe at home when using devices online.

It has been created by Cerebra with specific guidance for parents of children with SEND.

The contents list below shows you what is included in this document.

Learning Disabilities, Autism and Internet Safety

A guide for parents

CEREBRA
Working wonders for children with brain conditions

Contents

The document can be found here internet-safety-june19-low-res.pdf (cerebra.org.uk) or for a printed copy please ask your child's class teacher via the day2day diary.

Further advice...

Below are more websites with great advice and support in the world of online safety and SEND.

thinkyouknow.co.uk	childline.org.uk
mencap.org.uk	internetmatters.org

E-Safety Star points to remember each time you access the internet on any device   Kid Smart

Be SMART to be an e-safe STAR

🔒 Security: Do not give out your personal details or passwords

👄 Tell someone: If you do not like what you see, hear or read

🙋 Ask for help: Everyone makes mistakes

🙋 Remember to be safe!

STAR targets for Online Safety at Curnow School

The STAR targets can be displayed at home to reinforce the importance of these golden rules.

Don't forget our School website has information and links to all the websites mentioned and lots more!

www.curnow.cornwall.sch.uk and click on the 'parents' section